Seaside towns | Ancient Ruins | Nature Reserves | Lunch in Herne Bay | Post-ride pints | Seaside Culinary Delights

Taking in several stunning bays and seaside towns, coastal nature reserves, Roman ruins, a lunch stop at a Victorian seaside resort, post-ride pints, and culinary delights in Whitstable.

Along the way, there will be frequent stops where Colin will share stories about the history, culture, and landscape, including little-known local secrets!

Itinerary

11 am | Meet at Margate station where you will be introduced to your fellow adventurers before taking a leisurely cycle ride down the gorgeous Viking Coastal Path. A flat and relaxing coastline route suitable for riders of all abilities.

Early Afternoon | We'll pass St Mildred's Bay, a peaceful beach haven, before riding over the cliff tops taking in the stunning sea vistas. Then through a lush coastal nature reserve to Reculver, where we'll explore Roman and medieval ruins. Just before Whitstable we'll pass through pretty Tankerton with its colourful beach hut. Shortly after we'll explore Herne Bay, a quaint Victorian seaside town for lunch. On the pier, there's a great selection of food; Italian, Thai or classic fish & Chips.

Late Afternoon | Whitstable is a charming fishing town with plenty of character around every corner. We'll wander the lovely seashore, fishing harbour, and quaint cobblestone streets. Maybe try some fresh Oysters, some fine fish & chips, the best ice cream in Whitstable, a seaside tiple, or all four!
