Seaside Sights | Kent Countryside | Woodland Ride | Britain's Smallest Town |
Canterbury Tour | Quirky Tea Shop Lunch

A guided tour along the stunning Kent coastline and through the countryside from Margate to Canterbury. Taking in several stunning bays, seaside sights, countryside, quaint villages, Britain's smallest town, a quirky tea shop lunch stop, optional river dip for the brave, culminating in a tour of the cultural and historical heart of Canterbury. Along the way, there are frequent stops where your guide will share stories about the history, culture, and landscape, including little-known local secrets!

Itinerary

10 am // Meet at Margate station where you will be introduced to your fellow adventurers before heading off along a traffic-free coastal path then into the countryside through several quaint villages.

Early Afternoon // Quirky tea shop stop for lunch with a walk through a lush garden. Then we'll ride through the countryside, with an optional dip in the river/tea stop at a pub, then through beautiful woods to Canterbury.

Late Afternoon // Tea stop at a country pub and optional river dip. A tour of the stunning medieval city of Canterbury.

Either jump on the train with your guide back to Margate or stay in Canterbury, explore, and catch the train back home in your own time.
